

LUKE 8:22-26 NIV

One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and set out. As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!"

He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm. "Where is your faith?" he asked his disciples.

In fear and amazement they asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him."

They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is across the lake from Galilee.

What does Biblical, mature protesting look like and what role can it play in helping us navigate the process of embracing our disruptions?

There are times when God doesn't make sense.

God tests the presence of our faith in the ever-present God.

God is big enough to handle our toughest wrestling moves.

God always gets where He is intending to go.
